Jose Ramirez
Classified Employee of the Year
Lynbrook High School

Jose Ramirez was named the Lynbrook High School Classified Employee of the Year by the Fremont Union High School District Board of Trustees at its meeting on February 28, 2017. Now in his eleventh year as a student conduct specialist with Lynbrook, Jose works with individual students to enhance positive behavior, handles conflict resolution, provides a support network for students, identifies at risk students and facilitates communications between students, school and District staff, and law enforcement personnel that improves understanding and promotes a safe and secure environment on campus.

Jose appreciates the opportunity he has in his role to get to know Lynbrook students as individuals. He loves the welcoming atmosphere and culture at the high school and has become further involved in campus life as an assistant track and field coach.

Jose’s colleagues share that he is very passionate about his job and ensuring that all students on campus are safe. Students praise him for providing valuable guidance and keeping campus a safe and happy place through his tireless work ethic and positive demeanor.

Jose was born in Mexico and raised in California, where he graduated from San Jose High School with many fond memories of the friendships he made and the many adventures he and his peers had. Jose attended both San Jose City College and Evergreen Valley College and the South Bay Regional Training Center after graduation. Prior to joining the Lynbrook staff, he worked as a private security investigator and consultant. Jose and his wife Hope met through their church, and together have three wonderful children, Elijah J. Trinidad (13), Alessandra del Carmen (11) and Emma Isabela (5). In his free time, he enjoys horseback riding, camping, fishing and all outdoor activities.
